PUBLISHERS MET AT MIDLAND

ENJOY SIGHT-SEEING AND GOLF

The publishers of the Tenth Congressional district of Michigan were called to Midland last week Saturday to listen to a program prepared in the interest of better newspapers and to discuss problems of the craft.

The pen pushers were guests of the "boys and girls of the Midland Republican staff." Headquarters were at the beautiful new Country club-house.

Many of the guests arrived in time for lunch. In the afternoon some played golf, others, especially the ladies, visited the beautiful Dow gardens and estate, and others the Dow Chemical Co. plant and the famous Midland court house. It so happened that those who played golf didn't have time for the other affairs, so they missed a lot of the interesting attractions Midland has to offer. A person should have a week to do the city justice.

Midland's new Country clubhouse is one of the most beautiful we have ever seen. It was completed last spring at a cost of $150,000. The architecture is quite modernistic and is beautiful. The lobbies are large and comfortably furnished, and have large fire places at the ends of the rooms—two on the first floor and two on the second floor.

On the first floor there is a large public dining room and also a private dining room and guest rooms. Also there is a banquet room on the second floor, and more guest rooms, in singles and suites. There are several rows of lockers in the basement, lavatories, showers and indoor games.

The course has 18 holes, the fairways being varied in shape and distances and with a variety of hazards that go to make the game thrilling and interesting. It truly is a great course.

Gilbert A. Currie, former congressman of the Tenth district, who has a lot of Grayling friends, is president of the Country club and it was mainly thru his efforts that they now have such a fine club house.

W. H. Giesey, editor and publisher of the Midland Republican, and Philip T. Rieh, managing editor, and their wives were on hand and saw to it that everyone was made welcome and that they had a good time. Mr. Giesey is the vice president of the Tenth district press association. Geo. R. Averill, Birmingham, president of the State Press association, and Joe Burroughs, East Lansing, field secretary of the association were in attendance and addressed the meeting.

MR. EDISON ON IMMORTALITY

Relatively few people reach a state of mind which enables them to say with the late Thomas A. Edison, "If there is life hereafter, or if there is none, it does not matter." Most men today live either in an earnest hope or dire dread of immortality. Or, if they dissent from the general belief in life after death, find comfort in the prospect of annihilation.

Few of us are wise enough and strong enough to live as we believe. We ought to be lived and then remain content to let the question of future existence take care of itself. Few of us are able to keep before our minds an acute realization that talk, speculation, argument and desire are utterly impotent to change the fact about the existence or non-existence of immortality; and that the best we can do is to order our ways so that in the event of an awakening beyond death, we will be in position to exist comfortably and happily thereafter.

Certainly there is nothing to be lost by a life of proper preparation for possible eventualities, and there may be much to be gained. And as certainly, if the order of the universe contains no provision for resurrection of man there will be no regret, for we never will know that we labored in vain.—Detroit Free Press.

GRAYLORD POTATO SHOW NEXT WEEK

Next week the Ninth Annual Potato, Apple & Seed Show is being held at Grayling. While its beginning dates back only to 1923, it has grown to be the leading agricultural institution in northern Michigan. At first comprising only five counties, it now comprises twelve, all working together for better agriculture in the Top O' Michigan.

For three years only potatoes were exhibited. Later apples were added and alfalfa seed has been admitted for the first time this year.

It is a growing institution and every farmer in the Top O' Michigan should visit it whether he be an exhibitor or not.

The three days are full of interesting and instructive programs. Over twenty-five different individuals will have a display part in the program, most of them of state reputation, a few of national reputation and one of international fame.

Plan now to go down to the show and take an exhibit if possible. The dates are October 23, 24 and 25.

WOODBURN SCHOOL NOTES

A haze on the far horizon
The infinite, tender sky
The rich, ripe tints of the cornfield
And the wild geese flying high
And all over upland and lowland
The charm of the golden rod.
Some of us call it Autumn.
Others call it God.

Potato digging days are over and the boys are back in school. Our school board furnished us a new set of text books. We were sorely in need of them.

For hygiene work the seventh grade are working on a series of posters to illustrate health rules.

Today the girls are cleaning the school room and getting ready to put up our Halloween decorations.

Teacher—What is that lump on your forehead, Emma?
Emma—Oh, that's where a thought struck me.

Father—How are you getting along at school?
Wellman—O, pretty well. I'm trying awfully hard to get ahead.
Father—That's good. You need one.

SCHOOL NOTES

Juniors Upset Seniors In Main Tilt Of Tuesday Afternoon's Double Header

Tuesday nite another epoch in in-class baseball history of Grayling High was enacted when the Juniors defeated the Seniors by a score of 10-8 in a snappy game. Bill Harrison hurled for the Seniors and Shuey occupied the mound for the Juniors. Both pitched "Spotty" ball. Mr. Poor did some snappy fielding when he dashed over from "first" and caught a fly Harrison had muffed. Jack LaGrow was high scorer for the Juniors and Poor and Miller tied for the honors on the Senior lineup.

The Eighth graders overwhelmed "Frosh" in the second tilt of the afternoon by a score of 12-2. The boys from the "Eighth" knocked Rudy Harrison, who twirled for the "Frosh," all over the diamond. The old "Maestro," Mr. Cushman, tossed the sphere for the Eighth graders and held the "Frosh" to two runs. The first run was brought in by Harrison on errors, and the other run was chalked up during their outs. The Freshmen who trimmed the "haughty Juniors" last week were certainly out of stride and unable to cope with the fast playing and superb pitching of their opponents.

Monday nite the Seniors will play the Eighth graders and the winner of this game will play the Juniors for the interschool championship Tuesday nite. All three teams are confident of easy victory, but Tuesday nite will tell the tale.

The ratings of the teams are as follows:

Team	W	L	Pct
Juniors	2	1	.667
Seniors	2	1	.667
Eighth	2	1	.667
Freshmen	2	2	.500
Sophomore	0	1	.000

These interclass ball games have brought out the fine sportsmanship and friendly rivalry in bringing out the best the fellows have in them. We hope to see more of this interclass competition and we are looking forward with the highest anticipation to better games to come.

"Gabby."

The Sophomore Class Party. The first party of the Sophomore class took place Monday, October 19th at Portage Lake. The majority of us girls, who had started walking at about four-thirty, were picked up by the truck and car that had met by the rest of the class at the school house. We arrived safe and sound, but a little chilly. The boys then built the fire and we soon had the coffee boiling and waffles roasting. We all gathered around the fire with our buns, "hot-dogs" and coffee, which seemed to be the best part of the party. These soon disappeared and we were ready for the game—rummy, Ruth and Jacob, and hide-and-go-seek, and songs. At about eight o'clock the party broke up. After we were again piled into the truck and car, we started for home singing and as happy as could be.

Matilda Engel.

Arrangements were made Monday morning, October 19th, for the students of Grayling School to hear the program celebrating the 140th anniversary of the Battle of Yorktown. Our radios furnished by Harlow Sorenson and South grade on up were all turned on at 10:00 a. m. The program was opened by music played by the United States army band. While waiting for the President's address, Mr. Poor gave a review of the conditions prior to and after the battle and said that this battle ended the war which brought freedom. Next the student body sang "The Star Spangled Banner" and "America." Then all listened to the President's address, which was the first one to be heard by the students while at school. President Hoover said in his speech, "It is not so much to say that without Washington the war for Independence could not have been won." Also he said, "The victory of Yorktown was a victory for mankind. It was an end to the great trail of human freedom. Through these ideas of the minds of a people created, their exertions and accomplishments stimulated the progress was ended by the playing of 'America.'"

Grace Woodburn.

Fixed times are to be had by the Juniors this year and Monday meeting it was decided the public would be on Friday.

President William LaGrow has a committee of four—Nathaniel, Milfred Parker, Wilma, and Ruth E. Funck, to decide how to have a fun and good time packed into the affair. If this work can everyone is due an uproarious time.

Milfred Parker.

DANISH LUTHERAN CHURCH. School in English will be held the first and third Sundays in the month. Other Sundays the services will be in Danish.

DEPT. OF STATE

STATE NEWS BULLETIN

In an effort to ease the unemployment situation, Secretary of State Frank D. Phipps has announced that 1932 automobile license plates will be placed on sale Nov. 14. This date is 15 days earlier than in former years, but it is thought that the advance in date will stimulate the purchase of new model automobiles and thus provide increased employment for Michigan workmen.

No change has been made regarding the 1933 license plates. They may be used legally until March 1, 1932, but an appeal, based on state patriotism, has been made to all persons, financially able to do so, to purchase 1932 plates by 11:15 p. m. to assist Michigan in fighting the $10,000,000 winter highway construction program, affording work to about 30,000 men.

The 1931 law requiring registration of airplanes has been in effect since Sept. 15 and only three manufacturers and 11 planes have registered. As soon as all planes are registered the Department of State plans to make an analysis of the use of planes in pleasure and commercial flying in Michigan.

BEAVER CREEK "STANDARD" SCHOOL NOTES. Last Wednesday we played baseball with Love School and won, the score being 7-15. But our luck was not so good on Friday when we played Grayling, for we lost, the score being 8-18.

Bernard Palmer has returned from Flint. Bernard says he had a good time while there. Gloria June Mortenson has not yet returned.

The first graders are building a doll house. We are busy making Halloween decorations for our room.

Mildred Leaverton was absent from school Monday on account of illness.

The Third and Fourth grade geography class is keeping a "World Rose." We think this is great fun.

REXALL 1c SALE NOV. 1 TO 7

McNamara & Gidley, the local Rexall Druggists have just received a personal letter from Louis K. Liggett—leading figure in the drug world, old friend of former President Coolidge and a keen student of modern business. The message sent from Boston headquarters of this outstanding pacemaker in successful merchandising is as full of good news as an English Walnut. Is of meat.

Mr. Liggett throws some mighty interesting sidelights on current business affairs and has crowded much unsavory logic into the document. Referring to one of his conversations with former President Calvin Coolidge, he tells that after an hour's discussion of business problems, Mr. Coolidge declared: "Supply and demand will make the price. It always has and always will. You cannot control what God produces."

Mr. Coolidge was referring to the English attempt that failed, to regulate production and price of rubber. And Mr. Liggett's comment is, "No special legislation—no national legislation—no world intercourse or world courts can establish a value that will control the flow of business." And Coolidge was right when he said that price can be regulated only by supply and demand.

The fact that at this particular time of business stress there is list of the largest number of Rexall drug stores in Frongdon's history, was received with no little satisfaction, because it proved to him the wisdom of becoming the Rexall druggist in this particular locality where the profit and good will assured by the Rexall plan to both the one who sells and the one who buys has been a community affair of mutual benefit.

"I think the biggest merchandising idea that has ever been promulgated in America is the fall one cent sale," continued Mr. Liggett, and he gives his bit of history: "I brought this idea to you in the fall of 1914, after a year had been declared between European countries. Everything was at a standstill. Stock markets were closed. Everything was going to hell in a hand, and the one-cent sale put our business over then and it will do the same thing this fall."

More money is going to be spent in the publicity program for this autumn One Cent Sale than has ever been expended before. As its projector who gave it to the independent druggists who have accepted the Rexall merchandising plan, Mr. Liggett says: "The theme and scheme back of the One Cent Sale is clean—it is wholesome—it is truthful. It is merchandising from factory to consumer with the lowest possible intermediate cost. You will give employment in your stores by reason of what your customers buy. And after all, that is what is going to tide us over!"

This Rexall One Cent Sale will be run the first week in November and by people of this community will share in this greatest festival of buying opportunity of the current strenuous year.

ROSCOMMON BANK SAID TO BE IN GOOD SHAPE. J. J. McGraph, Detroit, has been appointed temporary receiver to take charge of the Roscommon State Bank which closed its doors 10 days ago. The appointment was made at a special session of the circuit court held Tuesday with Judge Guy E. Smith on the bench.

An examination of the affairs of the institution by the state banking department indicated the bank was in an excellent condition and the suspension was due to a desire of the officers to conserve the assets against heavy withdrawals.

It is reported a reorganization will shortly be effected and the bank reopened.—Roscommon Herald-News.

Mr. H. Skingley, Grayling, Mich.

Dear Sir:

During week of August 10th, I stopped at your shop and you welded a broken spring for me with your new electric welder.

Promised you I'd let you know how the job held up. I have driven about 2000 miles since then and spring is still O.K.

I remember you remarked that you could "weld like nobody's business" and it looks as if you were right. I know you helped me out wonderfully that day and it is appreciated.

Very truly yours,

START SOMETHING

A decade ago, when the United States was passing through a period of industrial depression, John Wamaker, founder of one of the most successful mercantile houses in the country, wrote:

There will be plenty of work for all if we show our faith, not by relaxing our efforts, holding back in fear, putting on blue glasses, and keeping our money in our pockets, but by making needed improvements, starting to build and rebuild, buying and selling, everything we have, for the good of the country. Money must come out of its hiding place, in banks and in the homes, and go to work along with our mental and physical energy, to build new homes, new stores, new factories, new businesses, new courage and new faith. I have more faith in America today and more expectation for the future than at any time in my 60 years as a merchant.

John Wamaker knew what he was talking about. The process to which he exhorted his countrymen in 1921 derided them out of the doldrums and ushered in a period of unprecedented prosperity. The same processes are required today to meet and defeat another spell of economic subsidence, with its concomitant fear and hesitancy. They will lead upward in 1931, as surely as they did in 1921.—Detroit Free Press.

News Review of Current Events the World Over

Sino-Japanese Row Provides Severe Test for League of Nations—Chancellor Brüning Defies Fascists and Reds.

By EDWARD W. PICKARD

Dr. Alfred Zee

REAL war between China and Japan became during the week more of a probability than a threat. Moreover, the situation in the Far East developed into a crucial test of the worth of the League of Nations as an organization for the preservation of peace, and made likely an equally important test of the value of the multilateral Kellogg treaty banning war.

If the efforts of the council failed, the United States and the league would involve the Kellogg pact, and that if either China or Japan continued recalcitrant, diplomatic relations with the offending nation might be severed. The league council resumed its hearings of the controversy, and Dr. Alfred Zee, Chinese representative, and Kenkichi Yoshizawa, Japanese delegate, spoke at length. The former demanded immediate action by the league, declaring that a miscarriage of justice would jeopardize the faith of the world in Geneva and doom to failure the international disarmament conference next February. Yoshizawa countered by explaining and defending Japan's actions in Manchuria and reiterated the intention of his government to permit no outside intervention in the dispute. He said the matter could be settled only by direct negotiations between Japan and China. Doctor Zee replied: "China will never agree to such a course so long as Japanese troops invade her soil and until Japan makes just reparations for the loss of Chinese lives and property."

While the debate was in progress Doctor Zee received word that Japanese army planes had just bombed two more towns far west of Mukden. This action, like the bombing of Chin-chow, was later defended by Tokyo with the assertion that Chinese had fired at the planes, which were scouting.

Notwithstanding the strenuous objections of Japan, the council voted 13 to 1 to invite the United States to participate in the discussion of Manchuria to end the hostilities in Manchuria. This invitation Secretary Stimson had already said would be accepted, and Consul Prentiss H. Gilbert was on hand to represent this country though without a vote. Japan, it was thought, might withdraw from the league.

The American diplomatic commission investigating the Manchurian crisis continued its work, but was forbidden by the Japanese to go to Chin-chow.

Throughout much of China the anti-Japanese boycott was gaining ground rapidly, and this especially irked Tokyo. It became evident that the Japanese cabinet, previously reported to have overthrown the policy of non-intervention, had come together again and that Premier Shiobara was supporting the military line.

It is feared by the Nanking government that Manchuria was definitely lost by China. Chung Hsueh-shan, the young governor of the province, appeared to have been driven out by the Japanese, who are determined he shall not re-establish his control there. This determination was probably the real reason for the bombing of Chin-chow, which Chang had made his temporary capital. Civic organizations in Manchuria appealed to the Nationalist government to resume relations with Soviet Russia, saying that only in that way could the annexation of Manchuria by Japan be prevented. Marshal Chang was moving his troops to strategic points, and evidently was backed up by President Chiang Kai-shek, who has declared himself prepared to go to war with Japan if the efforts of the league and the United States are futile.

SPAIN'S national assembly has an overwhelming vote adopted an article in the new constitution—the republic which declares that "no state religion exists." This was the Catholic church divorced from its union with the state which has existed for many centuries. The article also bans the church from engaging in commercial, industrial and educational activities.

Another article which would dissolve all church orders was rejected, but one was adopted that provides for the expulsion of all Jesuits from Spain, to take place when the constitution goes into effect. Only the Socialist radicals insisted on the wholesale expulsion of monks and nuns.

The action of the Cortes was followed by anti-clerical demonstrations in a number of cities, and at San Sebastian an attempt was made to burn a Carmelite convent.

Not in sympathy with the action against the Catholic church and orders, President Zamora resigned and Minister of War Manuel Azana became head of the government.

INCORPORATED under the laws of Delaware, the National Credit corporation was prepared to go ahead with its mission of "uniting banks throughout the country" to utilize their resources to further the stabilization of financial and economic conditions. The corporation has 12 directors, one from each federal reserve district, and each of them holds one of the 12 shares of $100 par value.

The funds within which the corporation will operate will be raised through the sale of debentures to the banks of the country on the basis of 2 per cent of their aggregate deposits, or the legal limit of investments, if that is lower.

These debentures aggregate $43,000,000. Corporations and private banking firms are expected to subscribe for the debentures also and it is possible that the total funds raised for the corporation will approximate $1,000,000,000.

Administration officials in Washington believe agriculture will share indirectly but largely in the benefits from the operations of the corporation. Banks in agricultural sections will be enabled to realize on frozen assets through services of the bank-log pool. Credit thus will be made available to put banks in a better position to lend for agricultural as well as other purposes. At the same time banks will be enabled to ease up on their demands, which will react in turn to lessen the pressure upon farmers and live stock producers who have obligations outstanding.

CHANCELLOR BRÜNING of Germany is now practically the economic dictator of his country. He and President Von Hindenburg are determined to save the Reich from the Hitlerites, called Fascists, and the Communists.

The aged president announced that he would accept the chairmanship of an economic council which will assume leadership of the nation under its control.

Adolf Hitler, the leader of the council, will work in close cooperation with him and his new cabinet, more than 600 members.

The council has been given power of representation, and has been authorized to handle the economic framework of the nation under its control.

Here Brüning had already tried to bring Adolf Hitler to a realization of his duty to Germany, calling him into conference and trying before him the desperate situation. The chancellor then went before the Reichstag and, boldly defying his political adversaries, presented his program of economic, social and political reforms.

His outstanding points were: Continuation of the cancellation policy of Stresemann; adoption of a plan for the redemption of the nation's short-term debt; the maintenance of foreign agreements between capital and labor, with adjustment to suit existing prices; the maintenance of the gold standard; and the formation of steps to open the markets of the world to German goods.

THOMAS R. AMBLE, progressive Republican, was elected to congress by the voters of the First Wisconsin district to fill out the unexpired term of the late Henry Allen Cooper, majority of the La Follette group in the house. Mr. Amble, who lives in Elkhorn and is a lawyer, was supported by a large number of voters. A. J. Kounin of Racine, Socialist candidate.

Amble, in his campaign, made attacks against the Eighteenth amendment, the Republican tariff and the administration's handling of the unemployment problem.

With victory for Amble the threat in the house so far is: Republicans, 215; Democrats, 214; Farmer-Labor, 1; vacancies, 5.

RENEWALS of short term credits to Germany and Austria were voted by directors of the Bank for International Settlements at Basel. Dismissing international finance, the directors emphasized the importance of the forthcoming meeting between President Hoover and Premier Laval of France in Washington and the direct necessity of the two nations reaching an agreement on world questions of finance, economics and international obligations.

PREMIER LAVAL'S visit to Washington is to be followed by one from Dino Grandi, Italian minister for foreign affairs. He was invited by President Hoover, and will come for ten days in the latter part of November.

M. Laval sailed from France on October 16, accompanied by a number of assistants and advisers in finance and economics and also by his charming young daughter.

WAR to the knife broke out during the week between Gov. Huey P. Long of Louisiana and Lieut. Gov. Paul N. Cyr. Though elected on the same ticket, the two men have been personal and political enemies, and Cyr has tried repeatedly to get Long out of the office. His latest coup was to take the oath of office as governor on the claim that Long was a United States senator and therefore not governor. This he did at Shreveport, and Long, who was in New Orleans, heard Cyr was moving on Baton Rouge, the state capital. He raced back by automobile and called out part of the National Guard to repel invasion, but the report of Cyr's march proving unfounded, the militia were sent home.

Cyr repaired to his home in south-west Louisiana after sending a letter to Long formally demanding surrender of the governor's chair. He said if Long refused he would begin ouster proceedings.

MRS. HOOVER is becoming an adopter of "christenings." Her latest in that line was the naming of the American Clipper, giant Sikorsky amphibian, in Washington. The plane, largest yet built in this country, accommodates 45 passengers.

The First Lady went to Buffalo on Wednesday and addressed the national convention of the Girl Scouts, of which organization she is the honorary president. She also dedicated the Girl Scout peace house, which faces the Niagara river near the Peace bridge.

HARRY is more trouble, indirectly, for Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist church, South, pillar of the prohibition cause. Senator Carter Glass of Virginia, unremitting foe of the bishop, has persuaded Attorney General Mitchell to order an investigation of charges made by the senator that Harry L. Goldhurst, the bishop's stock broker, was to be paroled from prison "in pursuance of a bribe."

Worthy agreement made by Department of Justice officials in New York and elsewhere. Goldhurst was convicted of aiding the trials to defend, was sent to Atlanta penitentiary in October, 1929, and last July it was announced that he would be paroled on April 15, 1932.

The Virginia senator said it was reported that a conference had been held between Goldhurst, Bishop Cannon and an unnamed New York politician, and that subsequently Goldhurst changed his plea of not guilty to one of guilty. This procedure, Senator Glass intimated, might have been followed to hide the bishop's lack of proper supervision.

Interesting Events In Grayling 23 Years Ago

INTERESTING ITEMS OF NEWS GATHERED FROM THE FILES
OF THE AVALANCHE OF 23 YEARS AGO.

Thursday, October 22, 1908

Tony Nelson brought a cat to the office which weighed over three pounds.

Mrs. D. McKay has been enjoying a week's outing at the pleasant home of P. Ostrander in the south part of the county.

H. Hanson returned Tuesday from a business trip to Monroe, La., looking after the interests of the Grayling Lumber Co.

Miss Laura London of Maple Forest was a welcome guest of Miss Ruth Barlow at the editorial home, over Sunday.

Connine & Co., are making the Avalanche office look like 30 cents, by painting their store front next door.

The large area which has been burned over has driven the deer into the green places left for food. They say they are unusually plentiful.

A good many of our hunters have been after partridge since the season opened, but few birds have been taken, on account of the heavy coating of leaves and the consequent noise in the woods.

Taxpayers of Crawford county will not feel aggrieved at the following statement: The state tax for the year 1908 will be $3,660.14, and the primary school money received from the state will be $9,022.10, leaving $5,361.96 to the good.

Mrs. Charles Amidon and Ray went to Crosson Saturday for a visit. From there Ray will go to Big Rapids to enter the Ferris School.

Sheriff Amidon was in South Branch last week, and saw where an immense bear had been driven out of the woods near Conrad Wehner farm and followed the road for nearly a mile. We hear that the brute killed a couple of sheep for George Hartman.

E. Alger was driving in his carriage last Tuesday evening, when his horse ran away and threw him out, fracturing his arm and giving him a general bruising. On account of his advanced age and weakened condition it is considered dangerous.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Olive E. Goodrich and Alfred C. Owen at the residence of the parents of the bride in Gaylord on

HAVE YOUR CAR ADJUSTED FOR WINTER DRIVING

With the coming of the wide temperature ranges experienced at this season of the year, the motorist will find it to his advantage to have the motor retuned and adjusted, according to M. D. Douglas, General Parts and Service Manager of the Chevrolet Motor Company.

"One of the distinct advantages of the modern automobile over its early predecessors is found in the fact that the motor today can be adjusted to give maximum performance in all seasons. A motorist who drives through the winter with a car adjusted to summer weather conditions deprives himself of much of the car's capacity for performance and need-

Our High School played a return game with West Branch last Saturday and won quite easily by a score of 15-0, this score being made by two touchdowns, a place kick and a goal from touch-down.

Men Of Johannesburg Fight To Save Town

The Brown camp of the Frank Buell company, out Wolverine and camp G of the Stephens Lumber company, west of Waters, were burned last night.

A large force of men is kept constantly on guard and the pumping machinery at the big plants are kept in readiness for instant use should fire creep through the lines.

At Quick, nine miles east of here, the fire is within a few rods of the settlement tonight and gradually approaching the homes.

About Vanderburg the fires have somewhat subsided, but there is still much fire in the back and constant guard is being kept. Today flying embers set brush fire in lots almost in the center of the village.

As far as can be learned the country to the east, which is mainly timber land, is being swept by a rapidly moving wall of fire. It is safe to say that there is almost uninterrupted fire from a little east of Gaylord to Athens, a distance of seventy miles.

Lovells Locals (23 Years Ago)

T. E. Douglas & Co. are building their camp for the winter's lumbering near camp 6.

Joe Krueger of Grayling was the guest of Dr. Underhill Tuesday.

Charlie Lee is sawing the shingles and he is cutting them at a rate of 40,000 per day.

Joe Simms has the job of lumbering the NW 1/4 of Sec. 11.

The Douglas Co. commenced sawing lumber Saturday.

Messrs. Ward and Squires came in on the morning train Saturday and went to Deward on the afternoon train to shoot birds. T. E. Douglas returned with them.

Miss Lottie Owen and Charles Owen went to Grayling Friday.

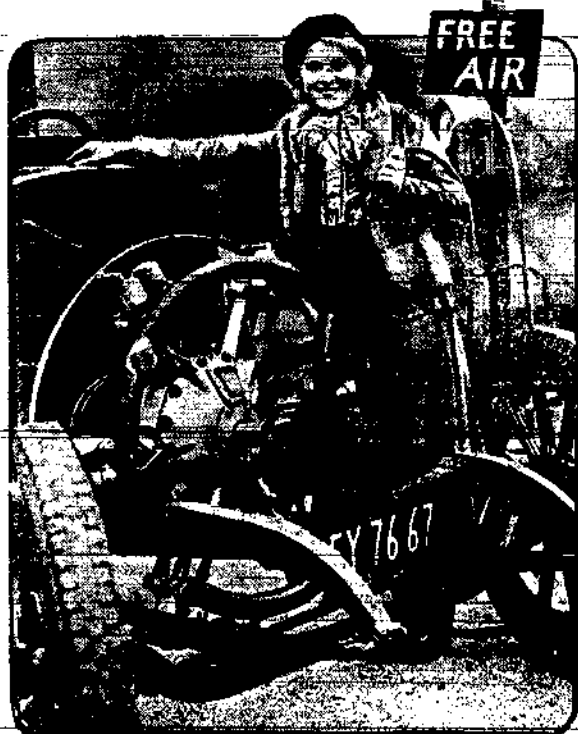

lessly increases its operating expense," Mr. Douglas said.

The carburetor should be checked, and the valves should be adjusted to prevent loss of compression. The ignition system, especially the timing, should be cleaned thoroughly and checked for proper adjustment; the proper functioning of the ignition system is essential to easy starting in cold mornings.

Other suggestions made by Mr. Douglas include a thorough flushing out and cleaning of the cooling system, draining and flushing the crank case and refilling with a good grade of oil. And, perhaps most important of all, the brakes should be adjusted, or if necessary, relined.

Compressed Air Runs an Automobile

Compressed air as motive power for the automobile is harnessed. In an amazing demonstration conducted at Los Angeles, a standard automobile chassis, powered with a newly developed compressed air motor, whizzed around the city streets at not a cent cost to the driver for fuel. The engine is the result of six years of research and work by Roy J. Meyers, who states in one filing of the tank will run the car for 600 miles. Resembling in general appearance a radial airplane motor, the engine is mounted in an upright position in the same manner as a gasoline engine in standard motor cars. It requires no cooling system, no ignition system, no carburetor or the hundreds of moving parts included in a gasoline motor. The driver operates but one lever. That is the air throttle. Filled to 500 pounds air pressure, the engine throttle is opened and the car picks up speed quickly and smoothly, the only sound emitted being a slight hiss of the air from the exhaust valves. As the air goes through the engine, forcing pistons up and down, on the same principle as that employed by gasoline explosions, most of it is recaptured and recompressed by a compressor built as a part of the engine.

FULL OF HARDSHIPS

The lady—I suppose that your lot is full of hardships?
The lobo—But it's de proper word for it, ma'am. In de winter w'en de farmers ain't doin' nothin' it's too cold for me t' do trampin' around, an' in de summer people's ather atherin' me work.

QUITE AMBITIOUS

First fella—Say, pard, wouldn't it be great if youse could git all de eat an' drink youse wanted by flat press in a 'lectric button?
Second fella—It shore would if I had somebody ter press de button for me.

UNPARDONABLE ERROR

Boarder—I don't think the city water is at all good. It has a whitish appearance this morning and tastes something like milk.
Landlady—That glass contains milk, sir, and I trust you will remember that your board was due yesterday.

MUSICAL CLARA

"Clara seems to be very fond of music."
"Yes, indeed. You'll always find her at the piano when her mother is washing the dishes."

PUZZLING PITCHER

"Oh, isn't the man that throws the ball on your side just splendid?"
"Think so?"
"Yes, he sends it so they hit it every time."

SMALL FLAT

"So you've been up to see the show. Is their new flat very small?"
"Well, they've had to exchange all their attractions for has-reliefs."

AUTOGIRO LANDS ON U. S. S. LANGLEY

The Navy's experimental autogiro made a successful landing on the flying deck of the U. S. S. Langley at Hampton Roads, Va., according to the Navy Recruiting Station, Detroit. This was the Navy's first experiment to determine the new craft's adaptability to naval use. It was purchased by the Navy for experimental purposes only.

REPORT BIRDS KILLED IN HUNTING SEASON

In order to have as long and frequent open seasons as possible, prairie chickens and pheasants are the supply will justify it. It is estimated that the Department of Conservation be informed as to local game conditions and the success of hunters in each part of the state.

This is the reason the Department is asking hunters to fill out "bird tally cards" which have been distributed through the Department.

These cards, which are obtained from any conservation officer and from many of the state game license agents, ask hunters to furnish information as to the variety of birds they hunted, the number of birds of each variety, the number of birds seen, and the birds banded. The record of birds seen is considered by the department to be more important than the number of birds banded, since it represents the hunter's opportunities.

Last year several hundred of these cards were returned to the Game Division of the Department at Lansing and much valuable information was given.

If one of the regular tally cards is not available, the hunter would like to have such a card, send a letter giving information about his hunting.

New Style Hairdressing

This is the way beauty girls look this fall when they wear the new style. The Empress Eugenie hat and has adjusted the demure feminine to waves at either side. These waves will come in any color to suit the gown and mood of the moment.

RANKS PARIS THIRD AS FASHION CENTER

ONA MUNSON is one movie star who does not feel she has to run to Paris twice a year in order to be well dressed. In fact she has joined the "Don't-Home-movement" and really prefers American fashions. It has been said before that New York is ahead of Paris in styles. Miss Munson agrees with this and says too that Hollywood also outranks Paris. "The average woman in a Paris gown is not so well dressed as she is well clothed," Miss Munson says. Hollywood in an early episode of the Radio City series of Hollywood a week last fall presented the "behind-the-scenes" story of movie life. Miss Munson is to be featured in the broadcast.

CHILDREN CRY FOR IT—

CHILDREN hate to take medicine as a rule, but every child loves the taste of Castoria. This pure vegetable preparation is just as good as it tastes; just as bland and just as harmless as the recipe reads.

When Baby's cry warns of colic, a few drops of Castoria have him soothed, asleep again in a jiffy. Nothing is more valuable in diarrhea. When coated tongue or bad breath tell of constipation, invoke its gentle aid to cleanse and regulate a child's bowels. In colds or children's diseases, you should use it to keep the system from clogging.

Castoria is sold in every drug store; the genuine always bears Chas. H. Fletcher's signature.

Nothing less than a six can give you built-in smoothness

CHEVROLET The whole question was settled long ago—as to how many cylinders it takes in a motor car engine to give satisfactory smoothness. Science definitely established the fact that at least six are necessary. And today, the public accepts the multi-cylinder engine in the same way that it accepts 4-wheel-brakes, parallel-mounted springs and every other principle of proved and acknowledged superiority. Everybody knows that nothing less than a six can give you built-in smoothness.

Today, six-cylinder smoothness is within reach of every new car buyer. For Chevrolet has produced a quality car, powered it with a firmly-mounted six-cylinder motor-engineered it to run with unsurpassed economy—and priced it down among the very lowest priced cars in the market.

Twenty models ranging from $475 to $675.

ALFRED HANSON, Grayling, Mich.

Who remembers the good old days when the newspapers would announce occasionally that another half billion had been paid on the national debt?

With all these European nations going off the gold standard isn't it too bad that William J. Bryan isn't here to have the satisfaction of saying, "I told you so."

Well, if the whole country goes to the poor house this winter, the keepers will have to arrange for a lot of new parking space.

A baby is always the most enthusiastic in saying "good-bye" to you; hardly ever has it a word in favor of adopting ten cent postage for first of the month bills.

Consider the Cow!

IF YOUR AD was in this space as many people would read it as are reading this. But your ad isn't here, and people don't know or care a rap whether you are selling groceries, gasoline, peanuts or popcorn.

Did you ever sit down in the pasture with a milk pail between your knees and wait for a cow to back up and be milked?

Of course not, you have better sense.

Well, business is kinder like a cow. You've got to go out after it and round it up. The fellow with the milk pail betwixt his knees MAY get some milk, but the odds are all in favor of the fellow who drives up the cow and feeds her.

A merchant may make a living by cussin' "the government" and waiting for something to happen, but the merchant who makes MONEY is the fellow who goes after business in the right way—he stocks his shelves with seasonable merchandise and then he lets his customers know about it—he ADVERTISES.

There are many forms of advertising, but the one "time tried" safe, sure and economical way is through the columns of your local newspaper. People are drawn into your store by the quality, price and service you offer—if you don't tell them about it how in heck do you ever expect to see any new faces on the other side of the counter?

All of the work so far by men and boys has been done voluntarily, but there are many who could help that have not yet done their bit. There is still plenty of work to do to get everything in shape for the Annual Winter Sports program, which the committee hope to make bigger and better this year, so take your axes and hatchet and go out and limber up your joints. It will do you good.

AM. LEGION NOTES

BY A. H. GANSSER

The second week in October, 1916, brought a rude awakening to America and the neutral world, as to actual World war status. Ever since the huge Russian armies began their victory drive on June 1, 1916, through Volhynia and Bukovina, against the hard pressed Austrians, Paris, London, Rome and Petrograd had been reporting allied victories. The crown prince had been stopped before Verdun during early spring. The Austrians had to stop their attack in the Trentino and Trieste areas against Italy, when the new Russian menace came from the east. The British attack on the Somme river front was making steady progress despite grievous losses, ever since July 1, 1916. Russian armies were hitting Turkey hard through the Caucasus and Armenia, while another British army was advancing toward Jerusalem. Then on Aug. 27, in the midst of all these allied war gains, Roumania entered the war against Austria with 500,000 fresh troops. A huge allied army was expected to aid Roumania by attacking Bulgaria in the region of Monastir in Macedonia, coming from Salonika in Greece. According to allied war news sources, Austria was ruined and Germany on the brink of utter defeat. But now, in the second week of October, came rumors through Holland, Sweden and Switzerland, that the Russians had been stopped by German armies in Galicia, and that other German armies were actually defeating the Roumanian armies both along the Danube river and in the passes of the Transylvanian Alps. Worse still, there came ominous rumblings of revolution and war weariness from Russia. Clearly things were not going so good for the allies on four war fronts.

Russia's Last World War Fight.

Today we know from official sources and the war stories of all the combatant nations, that the allied drive for 1916 had failed utterly, and that two years more of war, murder and waste would intervene before that final armistice day. In that second week in October, 1916, the British were making their last heroic effort at the Somme river front in western France. The French attacked at Verdun and the neutral United States and the neutral world, as to actual World war status. Ever since the huge Russian armies began their victory drive on June 1, 1916, through Volhynia and Bukovina, against the hard pressed Austrians, Paris, London, Rome and Petrograd had been reporting allied victories. London, Paris, and Rome. Russia was now fighting her last fight in the World war.

From Autocracy To Communism.

In 1812 Russia burned Moscow in midwinter and drove Napoleon back home and into exile at Elba. In the peace treaties of 1816, Russia was acknowledged the king pin of Europe on land, as Britain was supreme on the seas. For a hundred years, the Russian colossus maintained this dominance in the Balkans and Europe generally. Germany alone seemed to sense the need of modern finance and industrialization for a modern war. None knew better than Berlin, the deficiencies of Russia in all things that made for war power in the 20th century. When Prussia defeated France in 1870, Russia was the friend of Berlin. But when Berlin began to look toward Baghdad through the Balkans about 1884, Russia formed an alliance with France. Berlin formed the triple alliance of Germany, Austria and Italy. When Berlin began the naval race with Britain after the defeat of Russia by Japan in 1904, the balance of power in Europe gravitated from St. Petersburg to Berlin. Thereupon Britain sided with France and Russia, in order to maintain the balance of power in Europe. This very year, the League of Nations court has decided the custom union problem of Germany and Austria by a national division of 9 to 7, that indicates that this dangerous division of Europe into two hostile groups, still exists to this day. When on June 28, 1914, a Serbian killed the Austrian archduke and his wife at Sarajevo in Bosnia, Russia promptly came to the aid of Serbia and so precipitated the long dreaded Armageddon. Paris and London were confident Russia could crush both Austria and Germany with their help. Then Hindemburg won the battle of Tannenberg against the Russians on Aug. 30, 1914, while huge Russian armies were invading France and France. Thereafter came an unopposed defeat after another. Surely but surely his armies disintegrate and revolution comes.
